

The airwaves used by Sinclair Broadcasting belong to the public. It is unfair to our democracy to air nationwide a program like "Stolen Hour," which is intended to smear John Kerry and prevent him from winning the election, without balancing it with a pro-Kerry. This is the kind of abuse of democracy that over-consolidation of ownership allows. Please do the right thing and exercise your authority to prevent our democracy from being undermined in this way.

Elizabeth Baldwin